PROFILE

The 2021 Chalone Pinot Noir reveals aromas of freshly picked cherries, vanilla, and violet with hints of graphite and wet stone. On the palate, savory red fruit flavors of raspberry and plum are complimented with a touch of cinnamon, nutmeg, and clove. A silky mouthfeel delivers a plush mid-palate with a viscosity of creamy tannins and balanced acidity.

BRAND FACTS + KEY SELLING POINTS

- A California pioneer with a storied history dating to the 1870's
- The oldest producing vineyard in Monterey County and the sole winery in the Chalone AVA
- High elevation estate perched in the remote Gavilan Mountain range, bordering the Pinnacles National Park
- Ancient limestone and granitic soils add unique minerality and exceptional complexity to the unique character of Chalone wines
- The Chalone winery was ranked #3 in the 1976 Judgement of Paris tasting and ranked #1 in the 1978 San Francisco re-enactment tasting
